Important Notice: Keep Your Work Search Records

A determination that you were actively seeking work during a week being claimed is subject to reconsideration despite the fact that you have been paid benefits or returned to work. In order to preserve evidence that you were actively seeking work, do not discard your written work search record for any week being claimed until 53 weeks have passed from the end of that week. Further, if there is an appeal pending regarding your active work search for a week, keep your written work search record until there has been a final resolution of the matter.
